By Appointment.

Christ Church Gate, Canterbury, is the main entrance of the Cathedral precincts. It is a beautiful specimen of Perpendicular work, and, as evidenced by the date carved on it, was erected in the year 1517 by Goldstone. The visitor, passing beneath the arch, is confronted by the south-west Porch, the principal entrance of the Cathedral.

Dear Parents,
I am a very happy wife as you may suppose. We shall be very glad when it is all over. I've arranged for everything and do not expect any letter that I know I shall re receive. All well Love from all to all
